

Kick London Weekly Prayer Diary

May – August 2018

May

- 7th Kick London's CEO, Joe will be attending the Alpha Leadership Conference this week. Please pray this would be an opportunity to encounter new ideas, be challenged and be inspired by others in the room.
- 14th Kick London will be attending the Watford Headteachers Forum which will be a great opportunity to network with new schools within the area. Please pray this would open up new opportunities for Kick London.
- 21st We have our Board Meeting this evening. Please could you pray that this would be a fruitful time, sharing expertise, recent success and strategic decision making.
- 28th Thank God for the financial status of Kick London and for the success of the annual fundraising event last month.

June

- 4th We have interviews this week for our internship programme starting in September. We are so excited about the prospects of this internship so please pray that we would see potential and have wisdom in selecting the right candidates.
- 11th Please pray for all of our Kick London mentors within schools. Pray that they would be led by God in the right things to say and that they would see transformation of behaviour, attitude, and confidence in individual learners.
- 18th We have our Kick Academy Training Day taking place this weekend. It would be great to pray for all churches attending and to continue to pray for more to feel inspired to launch and share the gospel in their communities through football or dance.
- 25th Pray for your local Kick Academy sharing the gospel this weekend.

July

- 2nd We have our Kick London Tournament happening this weekend. Please pray for good weather, a great day of football and most of all for our speaker delivering the gospel message. We would love the message to stir many young people to be enthused by God, re-commit their life or to give their life for the first time.
- 9th Please pray for our staff team as the end of term is drawing near. Pray that the team would feel energised and finish the term well.
- 16th Kick London will be taking part in a football match with the charity, Song for Sue. Please pray the match would go well and generate funds for Brain Tumour Research.
- 23rd Pray for protection over the young people we work with and good decision making during the summer holiday.
- 30th Pray for a restful time for the Kick London Staff Team as many begin to take time off.

August

- 6th Kick Camps will be taking place during the summer holidays – please pray that these would be a significant time.
- 13th Some of our Kick Academies will be running through the summer. Thank God for our volunteers who give so much to these sessions and pray they would see transformation through their Kick Academy, whatever that may look like.
- 20th Pray for our development days happening next week. This will be a great time for coaches to be equipped and inspired about the term ahead. This will also be an opportunity for our new coaches and intern(s) to meet with the staff team.
- 27th Pray for the new academic year and that as we pray for growth and success, that Kick would stay true to its mission with God at the centre always.
